Alita Crume Wilson correspondence (Crume family)

From the Rhine to the Shenandoah / Daniel W. Bly (annotated excerpt: Snapp family)

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

NOTE

There is another, smaller, book labelED BB1.xx. That book deals with the Anthony Aylor (Eyler, Ohler, Ayler, Ahler, Oiler, Aler, et al) family as well as Peter Elier (etc)

I do want you to change the name Cromes to CRUME except for Uncle Wayne and Uncle Harrys family who use the S on CRUME.

I do not know why Uncle Wayne put the S on his name, but Uncle Harry said the army issued his number to him with the name spelled Crumes and would not change it so when he was injured over seas in WW II his disability payments were sent to him as Harry Crumes.

So far all of the Crume men that came to Ky. before 1800 could read and write. But not so for some of the women.

We have 13 generations of Crumes documented. and 60 pairs of ancestors with some spouses missing to make about 135 direct ancestors. I have a lot of work to do to find thoes missing grt — grandparents.

Right now I am working on my Wilsons hoping that I will not find a connection to my husbands Wilson family in Butler and Warren Co's, Ky. Through the Wilsons is where I found the Ilers.

I was surprized to find the Earps in your papers. My aunt Jackie Walker Lynch has information about them because her husband was related to the 2nd wife of Nicholas Porter Earp (b.1813-d.1907), Virginia Ann Victoria Cooksey (b1821-d1893) m27-7-1840 in Hartford, Ohio Co. Ky. They were the

This info came from my aunt. I have not tried to prove any of it. Wyatt's Coat donated by family member is at Hartford, Ohio Co. Historical Soc, (16276 - in your files)

also Thomas Wilson father of Geo Wm Wilson (15774) was not from Butler Co. Ky.
He may have been born in Shelby Co. Ky.
He was in Bullitt Co. Ky. with his parents before the family moved to Ohio Co. about 1822.
Thomas Wilson's father Samuel may have owned a farm on the border of Shelby Co. & Nelson or Spencer. I am working on that property question now.

Inclosed is a token of appreciation and I hope you keep up the good work.

I will write later if I need any more info on Ilers.

I am looking forward to your Newsletter.

Thank you
Sincerely yours.

CANAN 1-1

WILLIAM CANAN was the son of William and Ann (May) Canan of Mercer County, KY.

50281

NANCY (CANAN) AUTRY was the daughter of William and Ann (May) Canan of Mercer County, KY. On September 20, 1821, Nancy married John Autry.

50282

16292

JOHN CANAN was born April 15, 1804 in Mercer County, KY, the son of William and Ann (May) Canan. On January 5, 1826, in Ohio County, KY, John married NANCY ILER who was born about 1801, the daughter of Daniel and Francis Iler.

15590 15591

CANAN	1-3-1	WILLIAM M. CANON	b.	06-25-1826	15813

	1-3-6	JAMES H. CANAN	b.	ca. 1842	15834

John Canan from near Danville, KY, was likely the first of the Cannons to locate in Ohio County, KY.

Near what is now Cedar Grove General Baptist Church on the Rosine-Dundee Road, John Canan built two large log houses on opposite sides of the road. Charles and Malinda (Braxdale) Cannan lived in one, and Malinda's sister, Margaret, and her husband, William "Will" Potts lived in the other house. Both families were from near Danville, KY.

After the death of Nancy (Iler) Canan and the death of Charles S. Cannan, On December 16, 1863, in Ohio County, KY, John Canan married Malinda (Braxdale) Cannan, widow of John's half brother, Charles S. Cannan. 16271

John Canan died April 17, 1872, and is buried at McCord.

CANAN 1-4

GEORGE CANAN was the son of William Canan of Mercer County, KY, and his second wife. George was blind.

CANAN 1-5

ELLEN CANAN was the daughter of William Cannan who moved to Mercer County, KY, from Ireland.

From Book By: David Arthur Myers

Morgan,
Here are some corrections and additions to what I already sent you.
Ruth Velma and June Lee Dougherty both died in Grafton, WV and buried in the Mt. Calvary Cemetary(Catholic) 50711
50702 Thomas S. Newlon Married Victoria Belle Reed in Grafton, WV she was born on 7-14-1971. Notice the correct spelling of middle name. She was also born in Grafton, WV.
50728 Fred Poling was born on 10-9-1945 in Grafton, WV.
Stephen Waters married Francis Bernadine Dougherty on 2-23-1943 in 50735 Grafton, WV.
Marvin C. Menear married Catherine E. Dougherty on 3-22-1940 in Grafton, 50744 WV not on 8-23-1939. I also put her married name on the sheet and not her maiden name.
50765 Carol Twedley's last name is spelled Tweedlie, Frederick Menear & her divorced on 11-20-1996.
Lawrence "Kim" Menear was married 3 times. (1)Mary Lou Yaquinta DOB 50889
10-25-1953 M. 1974 Div. 1979. (2) Anne Kenney M. 1982 Div. 1982 (3) Judy 50769
Ann Meath Div. 2000. 50900
Gregory Joseph Rogers was div. in 9-1997. Christine Mecaskey was born
9-22-1973. 50790 50791
50795 David Ralston Dougherty born 4-22-1944 was born in Parksersburg, Wood Co.
WV. He was also married to Sue Carol Miller on 3-26-1965 and divorced shortly after. She was born on 6-17-1941. 50901 50825 Kathy Louzy should be as follows: Kathryn Lucille Louzy Born 3-5-1951 in Grafton, WV. 50831
Richard Allen Baugh was born and died in Grafton, WV.
Thomas Michael Dougherty born 2-19-1931 married Cora Pauline Pratt on 7-30-1977, she was born on 1-15-1937. 50902
The above information except for Carol Tweedlie and Lawrence Menear came from the Taylor County Court House, either marriage records or birth records. I hope you can understand this info.

SNAPP

Over the years genealogists and local historians have shown considerable rest in the Snapp families of Virginia and their many branches in other states. answers to several questions, however, continued to elude researchers and in nt years efforts have focused on finding the European origins of the family, rmining the exact relationships between John, Lawrence and George, the iest pioneers and clearly identifying the first several generations of the family in erica.

The establishment of the Snapp family in America is well documented. ong the passengers from the "Palatinate" who arrived in Philadelphia on the "Samuel", 17 Aug. 1733, were Johannes Schnepp, age 37, his wife, Barbara age nd children; Johannes, age 12, Lorentz age 10 and Barbara age three and ther Lorentz Schnepp age 21. The relationship of Johannes Sr. and the older ntz was not given but most historians have assumed they were brothers. By this Johannes Schnepp (John Snapp), Lorentz Schnepp (Lawrence Snapp) and families were living on the frontier in western Frederick County, Va. Some s later a George Snapp came from Pennsylvania and took up land near John's ly in Frederick County, leaving descendants in the area. This appeared to be ame George Schnepp who with wife, Magdalena, had children baptized in New over, Pennsylvania between 1752 and 1766. It was also thought that this was George "Shep" who arrived in Philadelphia, 28 Aug 1750 with a Liebengut ly. This Liebengut family also lived in New Hanover, Pennsylvania and appears e Lutheran church records with George and Magdalena Schnepp as sponsors ch other's children. Since George Snapp eventually settled in Virginia next to John Snapp family it has long been thought there must be a relationship. ever, its exact nature, as well as the relationship between the older Johannes Lorentz Schnepp, who arrived in 1733, could only be determined if the pean homeland of the Schnepp emigrants was discovered.

A concerted effort has been made by a number of researchers, including n Snapp of Rockville, Md., Evelyn Thompson of Treasure Island, Fla., Cleta h of Silver Spring, Md. and myself, to find the European home of the Schnepp rants. This effort was frustrated by the fact that Schnepp was a fairly common throughout the German speaking regions of central Europe. Numerous epp families were located in the Rhineland, in eastern Germany, southern nany and Alsace in eastern France. Following several promising leads, such as rominence of the name Lorentz in the region, Cleta Smith and I began ining the Protestant parish registers of numerous villages in central Alsace in . We found several Schnepp families; most of whom were shepherds, moved about a great deal and appeared to be related. Among these were a Lorentz and Anna Catherina Schnepp of Geiswiller, who appeared to be the right age to be parents of Johannes and Lorentz of Virginia. In the Fall of 1984 Cleta Smith was able to spend some time at the LDS Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City and systematically examine the parish registers of the Geiswiller region. In this way she found the birth of Johannes Schnepp, 1 Dec. 1695, son of Lorentz and Anna Catherina, recorded at Duntzenheim and that for Lorentz son of Lorentz and Anna Catherina at Wickersheim, 16 Aug. 1711. At Gumbrechtshoffen was found the marriage of Georg Schnepp, son of Johannes Schnepp, "Shepherd at Imbsheim" to Maria Magdalena Liebengut, daughter of Jacob, 14 Aug. 1749. This is obviously the Georg "Shep" who arrived in Philadelphia with Jacob Liebengut and his family in 1750. Lorentz Schnepp, father of the Virginia pioneers died at Gumbrechtshoffen in 1732 but the exact relationship between Georg Schnepp of Gumbrechtshoffen and Johannes and Lorentz, the Virginia pioneers has not been determined. By researching additional parish records it was possible for me to establish at least four generations of Johannes Schnepp's ancestors in Alsace and piece together a rather interesting picture of peasant life in the Old World.

Rural life in central Europe followed patterns that had been shaped centuries earlier in the Middle Ages. The people lived in compact villages and farmed the outlying lands rather than living and working on individual farms. Individuals owned plots of land for gardens and for grain but the forests, meadows and pasturelands were open and held in common by the whole village. Swine was turned loose in the forest and woodlands, sheep grazed the hillsides and rougher terrain and cattle grazed in the meadowlands. Therefore each village needed someone or perhaps several people to tend the animals on the common lands full time. The villagers paid the herdsmen according to the number of animals owned and many villages had a house or cottage for use of the herdsman. If a man became too old or infirm to follow the herds he could still earn his keep as a "nonnenmacher" (castrator) or by caring for sick or injured animals.

For generations the Schnepps were a large extended family whose men earned their living by animal husbandry, as shepherds, cowherders, swine herders and dairymen. Due to the nature of this occupation the families were seldom in one village for any period of time and tended to migrate in search of work. Lorentz Schnepp, father of Johannes and Lorentz, the Virginia pioneers, had children baptized in eight different villages. His father, Hans Schnepp, had at least twelve children born in almost as many different villages in northern Alsace.

The earliest records of the Schnepp family in Alsace are found at Plobsheim, near the Rhine south of Strasburg, where Hans Schnepp, "shepherd at Haegen" married in 1629 and had several children baptized at Plobsheim and neighboring villages. The family migrated northward by the mid 1660s where Hans Schnepp, son Hans of Plobsheim worked in numerous villages around Pfaffenhoffen. The next generation migrated further north from Pfaffenhoffen and Geiswiller toward Gumbrechtshoffen and Woerth. Changing economic conditions, such as enclosure of common lands and lack of opportunities for work prompted many younger people to emigrate to other areas of Germany or America.

JOHN SNAPP FAMILY

The earliest known ancestor of John Snapp (Johannes Schnepp), the pioneer founder of a branch of the family in Virginia, is Hans Schnepp, a laborer in the Alsatian village of Plobsheim about eight miles south of Strasbourg. Nothing more is known of this Hans, therefore this genealogy begins with his son, Hans (#1), who married at Plobsheim in 1629 and worked as a shepherd in numerous villages in northern Alsace.

1-HANS SCHNEPP. "son of Hans; laborer at Plobsheim." was born about 1605. married twice and died after 1670 near Ingenheim or Melsheim in north central Alsace. He married APOLLONIA MAUSER, daughter of Georg Mauser deceased, 16 Nov. 1629 at Plobsheim, near Strasbourg. She was born in 1606 and was buried at Plobsheim, 12 Sept. 1640. Hans married on 9 May 1641, MARIA HELFFER, daughter of Hans, deceased, of Plobsheim. No further record of Maria. Children: three by Apollonia and four by Maria.

x (6) MARIA SCHNEPP, bapt, 9 Dec. 1645, d. 3 May 1710.
x (7) MARTIN SCHNEPP, bapt. 2 Nov. 1647, d. 1711.

Hans was identified as a shepherd at Haegen and a son of "Hans Schnepp laborer" at Plobsheim in the record of his marriage to Apollonia. Hans and Apollonia lived for a while at Entzheim, near Plobsheim and their first child was baptized there. Their son, Johannes (Hans) was baptized at Plobsheim in 1633 but the record referred to Hans as a "shepherd in Entzheim". By 1638 he was back in Plobsheim and appears to have been the village shepherd until about 1645 when he and his second wife moved to nearby Graffenstaden. The baptismal record for his son, Martin, in 1647 referred to him as the shepherd at Gravenstanden (sic.) and citizen of Plobsheim. The marriage record for his son, Johannes (Hans) at Graffenstaden in 1656 identified him as "Hans, the shepherd, son of Hans, also a shepherd at Gravenstaden."

In the 1660s Hans and his family apparently moved further north to the villages of Ingenheim and Melsheim, where the younger sons and daughter married between 1664 and 1670. Hans was identified as a shepherd at Ingenheim, when his son, Matthias,married there in 1670. He would have been between 65 and 70 years of age by that time and no further record of him has been found. Hans's sons, Valentin, Matthias and Martin all became shepherds or herdsmen, lived to a ripe old age and worked in numerous villages in northern Alsace. Valentin died at Menchenhoffen, Matthias died at Uttwiller and Martin died at Retschwiller, near Soultz. An account of their families and descendants is beyond the scope of this work, but it is possible that further research might show Georg Schnepp, the 1750 emigrant to be a descendant of one of them.

Hans lived at Graffenstaden and the nearby village of Eschau for several years after his marriage to Brigitta. Their daughters were baptized in the Lutheran Church at Graffenstaden. with Hans Weidach, weaver. among their sponsors. There is a gap in the Graffenstaden church records from 1661 to 1685 after which the Schnepp family no longer appears in the records of this region. The next record to be found is the baptism of his son, Lorentz. at Pfaffenhoffen in the Spring of 1669. At that time his wife was Maria and other records indicate that the older sons were all by Maria. Thus. it appears that Brigitta died about 1662. Hans married Maria and in the mid 1660s migrated westward with his father and other members of the family to northern Alsace where there was an abundance of grazing land and opportunities for work.

In the mid 1670s Hans was a shepherd at Engwiller. north of Pfaffenhoffen but his son. Andreas, was baptized at Ingenheim further to the south in 1679. About 1682 Hans and his family moved to Waltenheim. south of Pfaffenhoffen, where he became the "Gemein Schäffer" (community shepherd). His wife, Maria, was buried there in the winter of 1684 and for a third wife he went back to the Graffenstaden-Illkirch area and married Maria. the daughter of his old friend, Hans Weidach of Illkirch. They lived at Waltenheim until 1687. then moved to nearby Eckendorf and by 1694 were at Wickersheim. Hans died and was buried at Pfaffenhoffen in December. 1701. Maria. who lived to be at least 80 years old and was a widow for over 30 years, was buried at Eckendorf. 7 Feb. 1732.

The fam f Hans's son Lorentz has been extensively researched because he is the father   hannes and Lorentz, the Virginia pioneers. An effort to find all the children of the other sons has also been made in an attempt to identify Georg Schnepp of Gumbrechtshoffen who emigrated in 1750 but that effort has not been successful.

She was born at Alteckendorf, 3 Mar. 1670, daughter of Hans and Anna Barbara Haber and died at Geiswiller, 29 Oct. 1725. Lorentz married ANNA BARBARA STOCKEL at Hatten, 13 Apr. 1728. Lorentz, like his father and grandfather, was a shepherd and followed his trade in various villages in central Alsace. Throughout his life he made the mark of a shepherd's staff next to his signature on various baptismal and public records. The first child of Lorentz and Catherina was baptized at Bischoltz, the next two at Duntzenheim, the fourth child at Bueswiller, the fifth one at Zoeberdorf and the sixth and seventh ones at Griesbach. They lived at Geiswiller between 1705 and 1710 but by 1711 were at Wickersheim and between 1714 and 1717 were at Melsheim. From about 1717 onward they were living at Geiswiller, where they acquired a house. In October 1725, shortly before Catherina's death, she and Lorentz drew up a will in which the surviving one received life-time rights to the house and property after which it would go to the children or heirs of Catherina. According to an inventory of property drawn up after Catherina's death, their estate consisted of several vineyards and fields which she inherited from her father, livestock and tools which Lorentz had before marriage and a two story house with a yard, garden, well and a stable in Geiswiller which they acquired after marriage. (Notariat Geiswiller, #154, Bouxwiller: Archives du Bas-Rhin, Strasbourg, France. These documents drawn up in regarded to the will and inventory of Catherina and the disposal of the childrens' interests have proven to be a very valuable source of information).

GEISWILLER

After Lorentz married Anna Barbara, they lived at willer until 1729 w he turned the house and property over to his daughter, Anna Maria and husband, Lorentz Hauptmann. Anna Maria and her husband had to pay brothers and sisters the value of their interest in the property. Lorentz and A Barbara then moved farther north to Gumbrechtshoffen where he is listed in as a "Schirmer" (ie. a legal resident but not a citizen) and his occupation was li as a "nonnenmacher" (castrator of animals). Johannes (Hans) was baptized at Duntzenheim, 4 Dec. 1695 and was confirmed in the Lutheran Church at Geiswiller, 30 Mar. 1709. He was still single in October, 1718, when he sponsored the baptism of a son of Hans Georg Clausen in Eckendorf and was named as the "unmarried son of Lorentz Schnepp, currently the shepherd here." He was probably married by 1720 and his wife, Barbara, may have been from Muhlhausen, where "Hans Schnepp" was listed as head of a household in a 1727 tax list. There are no church records for Muhlhausen prior to 1736 and thus a marriage record or baptismal records for their children will probably never be found. On the list of heirs made when the inventory of his mother's property was drawn up in April, 1728, Hans was named as a shepherd at Muhlhausen and he appears on a 1730 tax list there.

Hans took up his father's trade of shepherd and used the shepherd's staff as his signature mark. When he disposed of his share of his mother's property in 1728 he signed the documents with his distinctive mark of a shepherd's staff through and S" in an oversized "H". The same mark was used when he witnessed the marriage contract of his brother. Georg. in 1729 and on his oath of allegiance to the British Crown upon landing in Philadelphia in August. 1733. The "S" with the oversize "H" without a shepherd's staff appears on his will in 1762. This is the single most conclusive proof that Johannes Schnepp. son of Lorentz in Geiswiller is indeed the same Johannes Schnepp who arrived in Philadelphia in 1733 and settled in Frederick County, Va. by 1735.

Johannes (Hans) Schnepp was among the earliest settlers in the Shenandoah Valley, probably arriving with the Jost Hite group that settled on the Opequon Creek in 1734. When the Rev. Johann Casper Stoever visited the fledgling community of Virginians in the Spring of 1735. Johannes Schnepp and Barbara were among those who had a child baptized and they stood as sponsors for children of Ulrich Bucher and Philip Kleesz (Baptismal Records of John Casper Stoever. Egle's Notes and Queries. Annual of 1896). Hans Schnepp was also one of the signers of a road petition. by Shenandoah Valley settlers. to the Orange County Court in July. 1737 (John F. Dorman. Orange County Virginia Deed Books 3 and 4. pp. 112-3).

The Schnepp family settled in the western area of Frederick County along Little North Mountain on one of the drains of Cedar Creek. The family name soon became "Snapp" in English records and in May. 1746 John Snapp Sr. with his sons John and Lawrence were naturalized as citizens of Virginia (Frederick County Order Book "2". pp. 194-5). In January. 1749 John Snapp Sr. obtained a survey warrant for a 400 acre tract where he was living. The land was surveyed soon afterward and he received a patent to the tract from Lord Fairfax. His sons. John and Lawrence also had tracts of 400 acres surveyed in 1750. John's adjoined his father's and Lawrence's was further east. near present-day Stephens City (Peggy Joyner. Northern Neck Warrants and Surveys. Vol. II. Frederick County. [Portsmouth. 1985] p. 143). John Snapp Sr. and John Jr. were among a group of men who petitioned the Frederick County Court for a road from the gap in Little North Mountain to John Hite's mill in May 1749. The court agreed to the petition and John Snapp Sr. was appointed surveyor and overseer of the road (Frederick County Order Book "3". May Court. 1749). John Snapp Sr. was named as an Elder of the Lutheran Church. along with Valentine Windle and George Dellinger. when a survey was made near present-day Strasburg in 1751 for "the use of the Dutch chappel or Society of Dutch Protestants..." (Joyner. Ibid.. pp. 98-9).

John wrote a will 30 Nov. 1761. directing that he be buried next to his beloved wife, Barbara. deceased. His Bible went to his son. John. and his son. Lawrence. was appointed executor of the will. He named his five daughters by their married names and signed the will with the same "S" and large "H" that he used when signing the oath of loyalty in 1733. Having become a landed proprietor in Virginia. he must have seen no need for the shepherd's staff he used with earlier marks. The will was probated. 6 Apr. 1762 (Frederick County Will Book "3". p. 35). The death dates for John and Barbara Snapp were recorded by their son-in-law. Philip Peter Baker, in a family record he composed about 1800. He gave John Snapp's age at death as 66 years. three months and three weeks. (This document is now in the "Painter Collection". Microfilm reel #2. Shenandoah County Library. Edinburg. Va.)

Lorentz was listed as one of the minor children of Lorentz and Anna Catherina in the inventory of his mother's property in 1728 and he was still living at Geiswiller at the time. He left for America with his oldest brother, Johannes, about a year after their father died. They arrived in Philadelphia aboard the ship "Samuel", 17 Aug. 1733 (Strassburger and Hinke, Vol. I, p. 107). He signed his name on the oath of allegiance to the Crown in German script without any other distinctive marks. Lorentz probably moved to Virginia with his brother as early as 1734 and his name first appears with his brother John on an Orange County tithe list in 1737. When Rev. John Casper Stoever made a circuit to Virginia in April, 1739, Lorentz Schnepp had a son, Johannes, baptized, with his brother Johannes as sponsor. At the same time he stood as sponsor for a child of John Dyart at Opequon (Stoever Records. op. cit., p. 17). The evidence that Lorentz married Elizabeth Euler, daughter of Conrad is from records of the Euler and Gelwicks families found in Larry Neff and Frederick S. Weiser, ed. "Friedrich Heinrich Gelwicks, Shoemaker and Distiller-Accounts, 1760-1783," Sources And Documents of the Pennsylvania Germans, Vol. IV, Pennsylvania German Society, 1979. Friedrich Gelwick married Dorothea Euler, sister of Elizabeth.

Lorentz Schnepp moved to North Carolina quite early, perhaps in the 1740s, since his name does not appear with his brother's in the naturalization records of Frederick County in 1746. His name appears on a 1750 petition for land and on other lists of early settlers in central Carolina. By 1761 Lawrence Snapp was a landowner with 795 acres on the Yadkin River in Rowan County, North Carolina where a sizable German settlement was established. Lorentz wrote a will, 27 Nov. 1768, naming his children but not his wife, who was probably deceased. The will was probated in Feb. 1771.

6-JOHANNES SCHNEPP (JOHN SNAPP JR) (of Johannes #4) was born at Muhlhausen in Alsace in 1721, arrived in America in 1733, married about 1745 in Frederick County, Va. to CATHERINE (family name unknown) and died in Frederick County in the Fall of 1786. Catherine was still living in 1786. Children:

16-(6) JOSEPH SNAPP, b. 30 Jan. 1761, d. 8 Aug. 1825.

John Snapp was twelve years old when he arrived in America with his family. He was naturalized as a citizen of Virginia at Winchester in May, 1746 with his father and brother, Lawrence (Frederick County Order Book "2", p. 194). John obtained a survey for 400 acres along Little North Mountain "where he now lives" in Apr. 1750 and in July received a patent from Lord Fairfax. He obtained an additional 315 acres nearby in 1753 (Joyner, op. cit., Vol II, p. 143). During the French and Indian War he was a foot soldier in Capt. Lewis Stephens company of Frederick County militia and was discharged from duty in Sept. 1755 (Militia records in the back of Frederick County Deed Book "18"). John Snapp Jr. was appointed overseer of the road from the gap in Little North Mountain to John Hite's mill in place of his father, 6 Feb. 1759 (Frederick County Order Book "8", Feb. Court 1759).

John Sr. bequeathed his 400 acre tract to John Jr. in 1762, thus John Jr. had 1115 acres of land along Little North Mountain. In his will, which was written 20 Aug. 1786, he left 400 acres to his son Jacob, another 400 acres to his son Joseph and the 315 acre tract to his daughter, Catherine. He mentioned several grandchildren, namely Abraham Snapp, Christina Hotsinpiller, Elizabeth Keckley and Joseph Keckley. His wife, Catherine was still living at the time. The will was probated 6 Dec. 1786 with Jacob and Joseph Snapp as executors (Frederick County Will Book "5", p. 152).

Lawrence Snapp was ten years old when he arrived in America with his parents. He was naturalized as a citizen of Virginia, at Winchester, 5 May 1746 (Frederick County Order Book "2", p. 195). Lawrence received a survey for a 400 acre tract on West Run "whereon he now lives", 7 May 1750 and later received a patent to the tract from Lord Fairfax (Joyner, op cit., p. 143). This is the first of many real estate transactions made by Lawrence Snapp in Frederick and Shenandoah Counties over the next thirty years. Between the time of his marriage in the mid 1740s and 1764 Lawrence and his family lived near Stephens City. In Aug. 1752 Lawrence "Snap" was appointed overseer of the road from Crooked Run to John Hite's mill and in Nov. 1758 he was appointed overseer of the road from Hite's mill to Stephensburg [ie. Stephens City] (Frederick County Order Book "4", Lawrence Snapp served as executor of his father's estate in 1762 and appears in a number of court transactions in Frederick County as both defendant and plaintiff in cases involving debts. In May 1760 Lawrence Snapp purchased six lots in Stephens City from Lewis Stephens and in 1761 purchased 12 more "out lots" from him (Frederick County Deed Book "5", p. 472). Most of his properties in Frederick County were sold by 1764 and the remaining ones in 1777.

In 1764 Lawrence Snapp purchased 450 acres from John Funk Jr. at the mouth of Tumbling Run about a mile south of Strasburg in present-day Shenandoah County (Frederick County Deed Book "10", p. 250). This tract was the original Funk settlement and included the mill built by John Funk Sr. before 1742 (see chapter on FUNK). Lawrence Snapp eventually purchased additional land and acquired several grants adjoining the Funk tract until he had accumulated a single tract of 1791 acres on the Valley Pike south of Strasburg (Shenandoah County Survey Book, p. 2). It appears that Lawrence Snapp and his family moved to the Funk home in 1764 and lived thereafter in the stone house where the Valley Pike crossed Tumbling Run. The house had been built by John Funk Jr. just a few years earlier and leased to Martin Funk between 1762 and 1764 (Frederick County Deed Book "7", p. 243).

After moving to the Strasburg area, Lawrence Snapp was active in the Strasburg Lutheran Church and his name appears in several records relating to the Church. He appears to have been one of the people responsible for getting a permanent church building erected about 1769 and he is named in the church register in August, 1770 as one of those who contributed money for the building. In 1771 Lawrence Snapp was named as one of the Elders in the Strasburg Lutheran Church, when a deed was issued for a 200 acre tract that had been surveyed twenty years earlier (Joyner op. cit., pp. 98-9). From 1771 onward a number of his grandchildren were baptized at Strasburg and his sons Peter and Philip were confirmed there in 1776.

Lawrence Snapp wrote his will, 5 Apr. 1782, naming his wife, Margaret and his ten children, to whom he left large tracts of land. His wife, Margaret, was to have use of one half the dwelling house, "that part on the left coming in the front door...next to the mill....together with the Negro woman, Hannah." He apparently owned other slaves because he directed that they be sold with the personal property for "ready money". Rev. Peter Muhlenberg recorded the baptism of a child of Lawrence Snapp's "slave, Hannah" in Oct. 1774 (Notebook of Peter Muhlenberg, filed with Ministers' Marriage Returns, Virginia State Library, Richmond). The will was probated 27 June, 1782 with his son, John and son-in-law, Michael Spiggle as executors (Shenandoah Co. Will Book "A", 420).

The tradition among the Snapps in Tennessee is that Lawrence Snapp's wife was Margaret "Stevens." There is, in fact, considerable evidence to support the contention that she was indeed, Margaret, daughter of Peter and Christina Stephens, early Frederick County pioneers.

Peter Stephens is generally recognized as head of one of the original sixteen families who came to the Valley as early as 1732 with Jost Hite (John W. Wayland, the German Element of The Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, Charlottesville, 1907, pp. 33-4). Peter Stephens wrote a will 28 Apr. 1757, naming among his seven children, his "youngest daughter", Margaret. The will was probated 6 Dec. 1757

(Frederick County Will Book "2", p. 266) His oldest son, Lewis Stephens was born about 1714 (age 56 when he made a deposition in the Fairfax-Hite suit in 1770), the oldest daughter, Christina, married John Lenvill in 1737 and the youngest child, Henry, was baptized by John Casper Stoever at Opequon in Apr. 1734, thus Margaret is certainly the right age to be wife of Lawrence Snapp. Lawrence Snapp obtained a tract of 400 acres adjoining the Stephens property and later had many business dealings with the family. When Conrad Steiner, a Reformed pastor from Frederick, Maryland made a circuit to Virginia in the Spring of 1757 several of the sons of Peter Stephens Sr. had children baptized, among them Peter Stephens Jr., whose son Lorentz was sponsored by "Lorentz Schnepf and wife Margaretha" (Register of Reformed Church of Frederick, Hall of Records, Annapolis, Md.). The settlement of Lawrence Snapp's estate shows several accounts with Lewis and Henry Stephens, sons of Peter, and furthermore, members of the Stephens family later went to Tennessee with some of the children of Lawrence Snapp. It should also be noted that Lawrence and Margaret named a daughter Christina and a son Peter.

Margaret wrote a will, 9 May 1801 and it was probated 14 July 1801 (Shenandoah County Will Book "E", p. 446). She must have been a highly regarded and beloved woman because nine of her ten children named a daughter Margaret.

John Lewis Beard came to Virginia from Pennsylvania and moved on to Rowan County, N.C. with Christina soon after their marriage. In 1762 several creditors had the Sheriff of Frederick County, Va. attach money due John Lewis Beard that was held by Lawrence Snapp, because Beard had "removed himself or absconded from the County." Rumple's History of Rowan County indicates that Beard married Miss Christina Snapp and settled in North Carolina by 1755 (p. 67). According to this history he was naturalized at Salisbury, N. C. in 1755 and obtained a license to operate a tavern in 1756. John Lewis Beard donated a tract of land in Salisbury, N.C. for "...the use and behoof of the German Lutheran Church" in 1768. He was among the witnesses to the will of Lawrence Snapp (#5) in Rowan County nd was the executor of the will of Lawrence's daughter, Elizabeth Snapp, in 1774. ohn Lewis Beard was a farmer and tanner in Rowan County but eventually lived in the town of Salisbury. He wrote a will 13 Dec. 1788 and died a little more than two weeks later (Rowan County Will Book "C", p. 129).

JOHN

11-MARGARETHA SCHNEPP (MARGARET SNAPP) (of Johannes #4), was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1738, married HEINRICH MESSERSCHMIDT (HENRY MESSERSMITH) before 1762 and died in Shenandoah or Rockingham County, Va. before 1790. Henry Messersmith was probably born in Germany, about 1735 and died in Rockingham County before 1793. Children:

x (1) GEORGE MESSERSMITH, b. about 1762, d. 1809, m. Mary -?-.
x (2) BARBARA MESSERSMITH, b. about 1766, m. John Borden, 1785.
x (2) CHRISTINA MESSERSMITH, b. about 1768, m. John Weaver, 1787.
x (6) JOHN MESSERSMITH, b. about 1770, m. Catherine Pence, 1801.
x (3) MARGARET MESSERSMITH, b. 22 Apr. 1772, d. 28 Aug. 1830, m. Anthony Rosenberger.
x (4) CATHERINE MESSERSMITH, b. 1 Dec. 1774, m. Christian Michael.
x (5) ELIZABETH MESSERSMITH, b. 22 May 1777, m. Peter Miller.

Henry Messersmith is probably the same Heinrich Messerschmidt who arrived in Philadelphia, 1 Oct. 1754 aboard the ship "Phoenix" (Strassburger and Hinke, Vol. I, p. 628). He was in Frederick County, Va. by 1758 when he appears on the muster roll of Capt. Isaac Parkins' unit of the Frederick County militia (Frederick County Militia Records, Deed Book "18"). Heinrich Messerschmidt witnessed a land transaction for George Hotsinpiller in 1760 and is also named as an heir in the settlement of his father-in-law's estate in 1764. In the early 1770s Henry and Margaret moved to the neighborhood of Strasburg in Shenandoah County, Va. Their daughter, Margaret, was baptized at Strasburg in June, 1772 by Rev. John Andrew Krug, a Lutheran pastor on a circuit from Frederick, Maryland. Philip Peter Baker and Barbara were sponsors of the child (Maryland German Church Records, Vol. III, "Monocacy Lutheran Congregation, Baptisms 1742-1779, p. 65). Daughter Catherine was baptized by Rev. Muhlenberg at Strasburg in Jan. 1775 and Elizabeth was baptized at the Strasburg Lutheran Church with Philip Peter Baker as her sponsor. Henry appears in the 1783 census of Shenandoah County but not in the special 1787 tax enumeration. Henry Messersmith and some of his children moved into Rockingham County, Va. with his nephew John Snapp (#17) and lived near him in central Rockingham. Henry signed a consent note for the marriage of his daughter, Christina, in Rockingham County in 1787 and the bond states that she is the daughter of "Henry Messer Smith of this county." In 1789 Henry received a patent for 200 acres on Stony Creek but it is not known if he ever lived there. George Messersmith and "his brother, John" both above age 21, appear on the tax list of Rockingham County in 1793 but Henry does not appear with them. In June, 1797 all the children of Henry Messersmith, "deceased", sold the land on Stony Creek(Shen. Co. Deed Book "K", p. 538). Catherine was still unmarried but the Augusta County record of her marriage in 1799 identifies her as the daughter of Henry Messersmith, "deceased". George Messersmith died in Augusta Co. Va. in the spring of 1809 and in his will, named his children as George, Henry and Margaret and appointed his brother John as executor of the will (Augusta Co. Will Book "10", p. 258).

12-SALOME SCHNEPP (SNAPP) (of Johannes #4) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1740, married JOHN WISECARVER (WEISSGERBER) of Frederick County before 1764 and died in Frederick County, after 1782 and before 1806. John Wisecarver was born about 1735, probably in Germany, and died in Frederick County, Va. in the Spring of 1814. Children: at least eight:

x (1) BARBARA WISECARVER, b. about 1768, m. Jacob Renner, 1790.
x (2) JOHN WISECARVER Jr. b. about 1770
x (3) JACOB WISECARVER, b. 23 Apr. 1772, x (8) CHRISTINA WISECARVER, b. 1782, m. William Gough, 1814.

John Wisecarver was probably the son of the Johannes Weissgerber who arrived in Philadelphia, 2 Nov. 1752 and died in Frederick County, Va. in 1783 (see Holtzclaw's Nassau Siegen Emigrants, op. cit., p. 525). He may have been born in the same area of Alsace where the Schnepps lived. A Michael Weissgerber lived Gumbrechtshoffen and worked as a cow herder in the 1720s and '30s. He had a son, Johannes, born in 1727. A Johannes Weissgerber of Muhlhausen sponsored baptism of a child of Michael at Gumbrechtshoffen in 1731. John Wisecarver Jr. obtained a survey warrant for 335 acres of land on Froman's Run near the Snapps in western Frederick County, 21 May 1762 (Joyner, op. cit. p. 167) and received a patent to it in 1766 (Northern Neck Grants Book "N", p. 69). Jacob, son of John and Salome, was baptized at Stephens City in June, 1772, by Rev. John Andrew Krug, a Lutheran minister on circuit from Maryland. John and Catherine Schnepp were sponsors (Maryland Church Records, op. cit., p. 66). John was sole heir and executor of the estate of John Wisecarver Sr. in 1783 (Frederick County Will Book "4", pp. 648-9). Salome Snapp Wisecarver was deceased by 8 Feb. 1806 when John deeded his 335 acre tract to his son Henry in return for his maintenance the rest of his life (Frederick County Deed Book "36", p. 167). John wrote a will, 7 Apr. 1813 and it was probated 2 May 1814. He mentioned only his son, Henry and daughter, "Teeny" (Frederick County Superior Court Will Book "2" p. 410).

13-BARBARA SNAPP (of John #6) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1746, married twice and died in Frederick County, after 1793. She married JOHN HOTSINPILLER, 26 Sept. 1767. He was born about 1739, son of Stephen Hotsinpiller (Hätzenbühler) of Opequon and died in 1780. Barbara married, 16 June, 1785, JOSEPH JONES of Frederick County. he died in 1793. Children:

Barbara Snapp and John Hotsinpiller were married by Carl Lange, a ormed minister from Frederick, Maryland on one of his circuits to Virginia (Records of Reformed Church of Frederick, Md. Hall of Records, Annapolis.

Copies at Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Pa.). Stephen Hotsinpiller, father, of John, arrived in Philadelphia 24 Aug. 1728 and purchased land from Jost Hite on Opequon Creek in 1734. He married Elizabeth Brumbach, daughter of Melchior Brumbach of Germanna about 1736 and died in Frederick County in 1786. Catherine Brumbach, sister of Elizabeth, married Christopher Wendel (Windle), another early Virginia pioneer (see the chapter on WENDEL-WINDLE). John Hotsinpiller, a blacksmith, wrote a will in August, 1777. The will was probated in Frederick County, 7 Mar. 1780. The will of Joseph Jones, Barbara's second husband, was probated, 7 May 1793. The descendants of Barbara and John Hotsinpiller are covered extensively in Elizabeth Vann and Margaret Dixon, The Brumback-Hotsinpiller Genealogy, (Englewood, N.J. 1961) and William and Willetta Baylis Blum, The Rudolph Family, (Strasburg, 1966). There is further reference to the family of John Hotsinpiller Jr. and Elizabeth Pitman in the chapter on PITMAN.

14-JOHN SNAPP JR. (John #6) was born in Frederick County, Va. 10 Jan. 1748. married 9 Nov. 1770, CHRISTIANA FRYE and died in Vincennes, Ind., 2 Nov. 1798. His wife, Christiana, was born 9 Apr. 1750, daughter of Abraham Frye and died in Vincennes, Ind. 2 Apr. 1810. Children: One son.

x (1) ABRAHAM FRYE SNAPP, b. 14 Nov. 1772, d. 1823. m. Hannah Reeves.

John Snapp Jr. moved to Washington County, in western Pennsylvania about the time of his marriage and from there moved on to the frontier of Indiana after 1781. During the American Revolution, John Snapp served in Capt. Thomas Parkerson's Battalion of the Washington County, Pa. militia (Pennsylvania Archives. Sixth Series, vol. II, p.164). He was not named in his father's will in 1786, however, his son, Abraham, was mentioned. Perhaps John's father was displeased with him for leaving home. Christiana was a granddaughter of Benjamin Frye, pioneer settler on Cedar Creek in Frederick and Shenandoah Counties. The birth, marriage and death dates for this family were submitted in an application to the DAR and said to be from the family Bible but some descendants of Abraham F. Snapp question the dates and the Bible has never been located.

15-JACOB SNAPP (of John #6) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1750, married about 1780 to ELIZABETH KECKLEY, and died in Frederick County, Va. in 1823. Elizabeth born about 1756, died after 1832. Children:

Joseph Snapp lived on a portion of the original Snapp homestead in western Frederick County. Mary Magdalena was a daughter of Henry Clowser, who was killed in an Indian attack in 1764. Clowser's wife and three daughters, ages five, seven and ten, were taken captive and held for about six months. Samuel Kercheval mentions that the mother and daughters returned unharmed and that the daughters rew up, married and had families of their own. At the time he wrote his history Gr in 1832 all three were widows, living in his neighborhood and he named them as Mrs. Shultz, Mrs. Snapp and Mrs. Frye (Samuel Kercheval, A History of The Valley of Virginia, Strasburg, 1925, pp. 98-9).He wrote his will 18 July 1825 and it was probated 5 Sept. 1825 (Frederick County Will Book "13", p. 7).

17-JOHN SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County. Va. about 1746, married ANNA MARIA WENDEL (Mary Ann Windle) about 1770 and died in Greene County, Tennessee in Dec. 1818. Mary Ann Windle was born about 1750, daughter of Christopher Windle (Wendel) and died in Tennessee. 15 Mar. 1829. Children:

x (1) JOSEPH SNAPP, b. Aug. 1771, m. Margaret Cravens. Augusta Co. x (2) SUSANNA SNAPP, b. 6 June 1773, m. George Huston.
x (3) MARGARET SNAPP, b. 8 June 1775, m. David Spangler.
x (4) CATHERINE SNAPP, b. about 1776, m. Joseph Thornton.
x (5) JOHN SNAPP Jr, born 1788, d. 7 July 1830. to Greene Co. Tenn.

John and Mary Ann's first three children were baptized in the Lutheran Church at Strasburg. In June, 1776 John Snapp was appointed Lord Fairfax's agent for collecting quit rents in Dunmore County (present-day Shenandoah County) and during the Revolutionary War he served in Capt. John Tipton's Company of the Dunmore (Shenandoah) County Regiment. John Snapp owned large tracts of land in Shenandoah County but he sold this and moved to Rockingham County, Virginia about 1783. There he purchased several large tracts, the first one in November, 1783 (Rockingham Deed Book "OOOO", p. 353). His property was on Mill Creek, southwest of Harrisonburg and he was at one time a Justice of the Peace for the County. In 1815 John went with his son, John Jr. to Washington County, Tennessee But ut the other children remained in Rockingham and Augusta Counties. John Snapp purchased 200 acres on Limestone Creek in Washington County in 1815. Mary Sr.

Ann Windle's parents, Christopher Windle and Catherine Brumbach were early settlers in Shenandoah County and a fuller account of them and their family appears in the chapter on WENDEL-WINDLE.

18-LAWRENCE SNAPP JR. (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1748, married about 1768 to MARGARET (family name unknown) and died in Sullivan Co. Tenn. after 1822. No further information on Margaret. Children:

x (1) JOHN SNAPP, b. 1769, d. after 1843, m. Magdalena Keller.
x (2) ELIZABETH SNAPP, b. 2 Nov. 1771, m. John Tipton, Sullivan Co.

x (6) SAMUEL SNAPP, b. 16 Sept. 1781, d. 1859, Greene Co. Tenn.

Lawrence Snapp Jr. was listed as an ensign in Captain Alexander Machir's regiment from the Strasburg area in 1775 (G. M. Brumbaugh, Revolutionary War Records, Vol. I, Virginia, p. 603). Lawrence Jr. inherited 413 acres of land from his father in 1782 but about 1797 he and some of his sons moved to Tennessee. Lawrence Snapp and Margaret of Sullivan County, Tennessee sold land in Frederick County, Va. in Mar. 1808 (Frederick County Superior Court Deed Book "7",p. 89). Eventually all his children joined him there where he owned over a 1000 acres. The last record of him is a deed in 1821 to the heirs of his deceased son, Philip.

19-CHRISTINA SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, Va., about 1750, married MICHAEL SPIGGLE (SPIEGEL) about 1767 and died in Shenandoah County, Va. about 1782. Michael Spiggle was born in Lancaster County, Pa. 5 Aug. 1741, son of Johann Michael Spiegel and died in Shenandoah County, Va. in 1816. Michael and Christina had four children: John, Lawrence, Margaret and Peter. For further record of this family see the chapter on SPIGGLE.

20-PETER SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in 1754, married CATHERINE COPENHAVER, 11 Mar. 1782 and died near Strasburg, Va. in Dec. 1789. Catherine was born Jan. 1763, daughter of Jacob Copenhaver and Susanna, and died at Fishers Hill, Va., 23 July 1846. Children:

x (1) JACOB SNAPP, b. 29 July 1784, died as a child.
x (2) MARGARET SNAPP, b. 1786, m. John Hines and William Browning.
x (3) SUSANNA JULIANA SNAPP, b. 12 Sept. 1789, m. David Fisher.

Peter Snapp, "going on 22 years of age", was confirmed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Strasburg in Sept. 1776 and in the previous year appeared on the muster roll of Alexander Machir's militia company from the "Strasburg District" of Shenandoah County (G. M. Brumbaugh, Revolutionary War Records, Vol. I, Virginia, p. 603). Peter Snapp inherited 400 acres, which included the original John Funk mill near the mouth of Tumbling Run, from his father in 1782. He also purchased the 430 acre tract adjoining his land on the south, from his brother, Philip, thus accumulating over 800 acres on the Valley Pike south of Strasburg (Shenandoah County Deed Book "C", p. 563). Peter and Catherine's son, Jacob, and daughter, Susanna, were baptized at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Strasburg but Margaret's birth and baptism is not recorded there. Peter Snapp wrote a will, 8 Dec. 1789 and it was probated, 31 Dec. 1789 (Shenandoah County Will Book "C", p. 83). His widow, Catherine, married Jacob Funk, son of Joseph Funk in 1790 and had a number of children. For further record of Jacob and Catherine Funk's family see Jacob Funk #38 in the chapter on FUNK. David Fisher, son of George Fisher, through marriage to Susanna Snapp, acquired the old Funk Mill on Tumbling Run and operated it for over sixty years. The ridge on the south side of Tumbling Run has since been known as Fishers Hill.

21-PHILIP SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, Va. in 1755, married twice and died in Shenandoah County in July, 1812. His first wife was CATHERINE HOCKMAN, born about 1756, daughter of Christian Hockman. She died about 1808. He married 10 Jan. 1810, SARAH READER, widow of John Hupp. Sarah Reader Hupp was born, 23 Feb. 1772 and died 21 Oct. 1828. Three children by Catherine:

x (1) ABRAHAM SNAPP, b. 1776, d. 1806. m. Sarah Miller, three sons.
x (2) MARGARET SNAPP, b. 23 Feb. 1778, m. John Newell & Henry Browning of Shenandoah Co Va.
x (3) CATHERINE SNAPP, b. 1780, died prior to 1812. m. William Newell.

Philip Snapp was confirmed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Strasburg in Sept. 1776, when "going on 21 years of age". He appears with several of his brothers on Alexander Machir's company of militia from the Strasburg area in 1775 (Brumbaugh, Revolutionary War Records, op. cit. Vol. 1. p. 603). Philip Snapp acquired a large tract on "Snapp's Run" near Fishers Hill from Philip Glass (Kleesz), where he built his home by the stream that bears his name. The large two-story German style log house is still standing and has been known as the "Copp farm" in more recent years. Recently restored it is now called "Wildflower Farm". Philip inherited 430 acres from his father on the Valley Pike but sold that to his brother, Peter. He wrote his will, 18 June, 1812 and it was probated, 13 July 1812 (Shenandoah County Will Book "H", p. 234). His only son, Abraham died leaving three son, John, Joseph and Jacob B. Snapp, all named as heirs in Philip's will. Philip and Catherine, their son Abraham and other family members are probably buried in the old graveyard near their home where stones still mark the graves of their daughter, Margaret and members of the Browning family.

22-JOSEPH SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1758, married ELIZABETH KELLER, 15 June 1784 and died in Frederick County in June, 1791. Elizabeth Keller was born in Powell's Fort Valley, 2 May 1765, daughter of Dr. George Keller and died in Shenandoah County. Va. 9 Dec. 1843. ildren:

CH x (1) JOSEPH SNAPP Jr., b. about 1786, died 1809.
x (2) ELIZABETH SNAPP, b. 10 July 1788, d. 1837, m. Frederick Mauck.

Joseph Snapp inherited 200 acres of land in Frederick County from his father and apparently lived there for the short time before his death. In his will he mentioned that his executors were to build a dwelling house for his wife on land he purchased from his brother, Lawrence Snapp (Shenandoah County Will Book "D", p. 26). Elizabeth Keller Snapp married Peter Boyer in 1793 and had additional children. For further record see Elizabeth Keller #13 in the chapter on KELLER.

23-MARGARET SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, about 1760, married HENRY KELLER about 1782 and died at Mt. Olive, in Shenandoah County about 1817. Henry Keller was born about 1759, youngest son of George Keller and Anna Barbara Hottel of Mt. Olive, and died 14 Apr. 1823. Children:

Henry and Margaret lived on the Keller homestead along North Mountain at Mt. Olive and are probably buried in the old Hottel-Keller graveyard. The Hottel History contains considerable information on the descendants of Henry and Margaret but some of it is erroneous. The daughter, Elizabeth, whose birth is recorded at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Strasburg, is not mentioned and Henry Jr. is identified as a grandson. Margaret Keller, "daughter of Henry" married John Lewis Hoffman but obviously died without issue prior to her parents. Deeds in 1824 involving the heirs of Henry Keller refer to the land being divided into ten parts and later the shares of Elizabeth and Jacob, who died without children are divided among the remaining heirs (Shen. Co. Deed Bks "DD", p. 321, "OO", pp. 110-15 and "YY", p. 362). After Margaret's death, Henry Keller married Barbara Didawick Snarr, widow of Henry Snarr in 1818. All ten surviving children of Henry and Margaret are named in order of birth in an indenture in which Barbara relinquishes all dower interest in her deceased husband's land (Ibid. "CC", p. 217).

Abraham Snapp was still underage at the time his father died and in Nov. 1782 his brother, Philip, became his guardian. The following year, he married, perhaps while still underage. Abraham inherited 200 acres from his father in Frederick County, Va. and apparently lived there until he and Magdalena sold it to Henry Weaver in 1788 (Frederick Co. Deed Book "21", p. 885). According to an obituary for his son, Abraham Jr., the family moved to Washington County, Tennessee about 1803, where he took up land. Records in Washington County, Tenn. show that in Mar. 1803, Abraham purchased 350 acres on the Nolachucky River from his BR -other, Jacob Snapp (Washington Co. Deed Book "9", p. 213). Abraham Snapp "being of advanced age" wrote a will, 8 July 1833 in which he named all fourteen SR of his children, though he had already given them their portion of his estate. His son, Abraham, received his remaining land and personal property because he had previously agreed to maintain him for his lifetime.

25-SUSANNA SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born in Frederick County, Va. about 1764, married JOHN HARR, 13 May 1782 and died in Sullivan County, Tenn. in 1827. John Harr was born in 1762, son of Simon Harr of Strasburg and died in Tenn. in 1836. Children: at least two known, their daughter was baptized in Strasburg Lutheran Church:

x (1) MARGARET HARR, b. 20 Sept. 1785, m. George Rodheffer.
x (2) JOSEPH HARR, b.1787, d. Nov. 1822, m. Rebecca Beard.

John Harr purchased 149 acres on the Valley Pike, south of Strasburg, from Peter Snapp in 1787 and sold this tract to Jacob Funk "of Joseph", in 1802. The Harr family moved to Sullivan County, Tenn. with other members of the Snapp family. John Harr purchased 66 acres in Sullivan County in Feb. 1807 and in Apr. 1808 purchased and additional 133 on Reedy Creek adjoining his other land and the land of his son-in-law, George Rodeffer (Sullivan Co. Deed Books "4", p. 819 and "5", p. 114).

26-JACOB SNAPP (of Lawrence #7) was born near Strasburg, Va. about 1765, married BARBARA KELLER, 30 Nov. 1790 and died in Shenandoah County, Va. 24 Jan. 1847. Barbara was born in Powell's Fort Valley in 1773, daughter of Dr. George Keller and died in Shenandoah County in Feb. 1850. Children:

41 x (1) MARGARET SNAPP, b. 21 Mar. 1793, d. 1862, m. John Keller.
[illegible] x (2) JOHN SNAPP, b. about 1797, m. Catherine Newland, 1822.
44 x (3) LEVI SNAPP, b. 25 Mar. 1803, d. 28 Aug. 1881. Never married.
45 x (4) ABRAHAM SNAPP, b. 1805, d. Mar. 1835, m. Eliz. Windle.
46 x (5) ELIZABETH SNAPP, b. 1806, m. Joseph Hyde, Shenandoah Co. Va.
x (6) PETER SNAPP, b. 12 Mar. 1808, d. Mar. 1883. Richland Co. OH.

Jacob Snapp inherited 450 acres on the north side of Tumbling Run from his father, including the dwelling house, which he was to share with his mother. The Shenandoah County personal property tax records show his mother, Margaret, as responsible for a male tithable age 16-21 from 1784-1788 and Jacob first appears in the record in Apr. 1789, indicating that he came of age in the year prior to that. Upon coming of age he took possession of his land, married and lived there until about 1800. He put up his land as security on a 1000 dollar loan from Christian Stover of Strasburg in June, 1800 and apparently went to Tennessee where he purchased land in Washington and Sullivan Counties. He may have never moved his family to Tennessee because over the next several years he sold his Tennessee lands and on several of the deed he was described as a resident of Shenandoah County, Va. (137 acres to Nicholas Kressell, Feb. 1803, Sullivan Co. Deed Book "4", p. 556; 350 acres to his brother, Abraham, Mar. 1803, Washington Co. Deed Book "9", p. 213; and to Jacob Sturm a lot in Blountsville, 1809, Sullivan Co. Deed Book "6", 179). If Jacob and Barbara lived in Tennessee it was for only a few years, and he continued to be listed in the Shenandoah County tax records. By 1810 he was definitely back in Shenandoah County where he and his family appear in the 1810 census. At that time Jacob and Barbara were both between 26 and 45 years of age, and their family consisted of one male age 10 to 16, three males under ten, a female 16 to 26, a female 10 to 16 and one female under 10. Jacob and Barbara lived the rest of their lives in Shenandoah County. They sold the land in Powell's Fort Valley which she inherited from the Keller estate to Henry Hockman in Jan. 1823 (Shen. Co. Deed Book "FF", p. 236). In June, 1836 Jacob Snapp sold considerable personal property to his son-in-law, John Keller, in order to pay a debt to Lawrence Snapp of Tennessee (Ibid. Book "PP", p. 138). The names and ages of his children have been determined by the personal property tax records census and marriage records. Jacob was the last surviving of the children of Lawrence Snapp Sr., having out lived his brothers and sisters by many years. Jacob's death is recorded in the diary of Levi Pitman of Mt. Olive in Shenandoah County. For further record of Barbara see Barbara Keller #15 in the chapter on KELLER. Barbara was a sister of Elizabeth Keller, wife of Joseph Snapp #22 above.
